Black History Moment

One in four cowboys was Black, despite the stories told in popular books and movies. In fact, its believed that the real "Lone Ranger" was inspired by an African American man named Bass Reeves. Reeves had been born a slave but escaped to the West during the Civil War where he lived in what was then known as Indian Territory. He eventually became a Deputy U.S. Marshall, was a master of disguise, an expert marksman, had a Native American companion, and rode a silver horse.

Focus Scripture ¹⁰The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly. John 10:10

Prayer of Devotion

Holy God, we are awed and humbled by your gracious presence among us. Who are we in light of your sovereign majesty?

Lord, we are thankful that your love and mercy, forgiveness and peace, comfort and protection are not withheld from us but are poured out in abundance. Amen.

Quote for the Month

Man's life is of God, not of his goods, however abundant they may be.

-Henry Alford-

Christ is a substitute for everything, but nothing is a substitute for Christ.
